Even the most gifted individual, whether athlete or physicist, will not realize his full potential or make his fullest contribution to his times unless his imagination has been kindled by the aspirations and accomplishments of those who have gone before him. Humanist scholars have therefore the privilege and obligation of interpreting the past to each new generation of men who necessarily must live in one small corner for one little stretch of time. Similarly, Damien teaches each new class of young men that are given the opportunity to study, participate, and represent the school, that they should listen and learn from the upperclassmen who have been through that upon which they are about to embark.

Every competitor must come prepared, whether it be with shields and swords like the Spartans of old, or with helmets and bats like the Spartans of today. They must drill rigorously, whether it be to form the Greek phalanx of ancient armies, or to defend the goal line on the football field. The Spartan principles that Damien athletes take with them onto the playing field have brought them the same success that the ancient Spartan warriors experienced.

Going into the 79' season, the Spartans were rated number one in the newly formed Baseline League and figured to do well in CIF. These predictions seemed accurate after the season opener against Pasadena as the Spartans rolled to a easy 33-18 victory. This victory assured the Damien Spartans a number one rating in the Eastern Conference. After defeating San Dimas and Chino by convincing scores of 41-0 and 29-0 respectively, the Spartans renewed their long time rivalry with Bishop Amat with a hard fought 21-19 victory. But unfortunately, the Spartans then experienced an emotional let-down and lost to Walnut 27-16. After a lackluster 9-3 victory over Claremont, the Damien Homecoming seemed to provide the spark that the Spartan offense needed as they exploded for 31 points to Pomona's 13. The Spartans lost a 12-10 thriller to Upland then proceeded to lose 20-6 to Chaffey. After a resounding victory over Glendora, Damien gained a CIF Playoff berth to Whitmont League Champs La Serna. But after a hard fought battle they lost the game by a score of 21-20. This ended their season, leaving them with a mark of seven wins and four losses.

Spartans Go To Long Beach!!

On completion of the finest season in Damien's history, the basketball team entered the C.I.F. Southern Section play-offs. The Spartans drew the Cavaliers of Montclair for the first round, and defeated them easily 78-51. After traveling to Edgewood to defeat the Rowland Raiders, the team advanced to the quarter finals against #1 seeded Santa Ana Valley. The Spartans took the game into double overtime before they emerged victorious. Then, a dream come true for the Cinderella Spartans, the Damien team advanced to the Long Beach Arena to play La Quinta. Unfortunately, the dream ended there with an 89-51 defeat. The Spartans completed their season 22-7, deservedly proud.

The Varsity Basketball team's season began long before most people realized. The team worked hard over the summer, participating in two summer leagues and attending the Westmont Basketball Camp. The Spartans opened the official season at San Dimas. After an impressive victory over the Saints, the Spartans moved on to the Bishop Amat tourney. The Spartans captured the consolation championship. From there the Spartans team took sixth place. The team wasn't satisfied, and came back to claim the championship in the Bosco Tech tourney. The Baseline league circuit opened with the Spartans trouncing top-ranked Claremont and Pomona. The cagers breezed through their next two games, but faltered with a loss to Glendora. The five won their next four including a thriller against Pomona. The Spartans lost their final game, but concluded their season as Co-Champs in the inaugural season of the Baseline ague. The team broke over thirty school basketball records, including best overall record and only team to win a league championship in the school's 21 year history.

Damien Debaters

(Coach) Mr. Hudson gives his thoughts on topic.

Paul Munch prepares for next match.

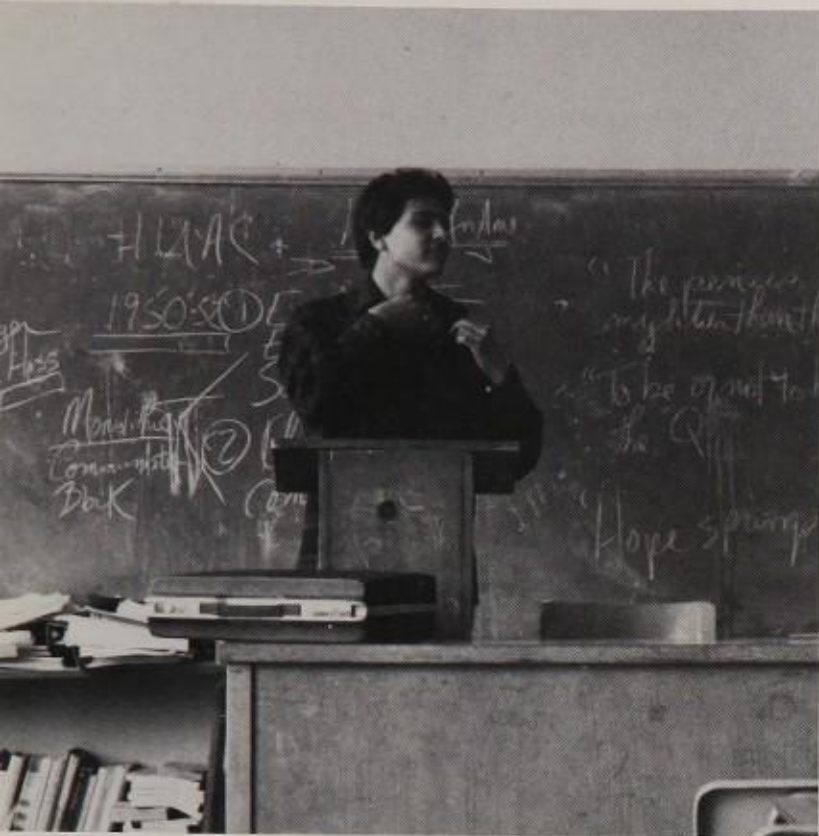

Bruce McNamara goes over speech.

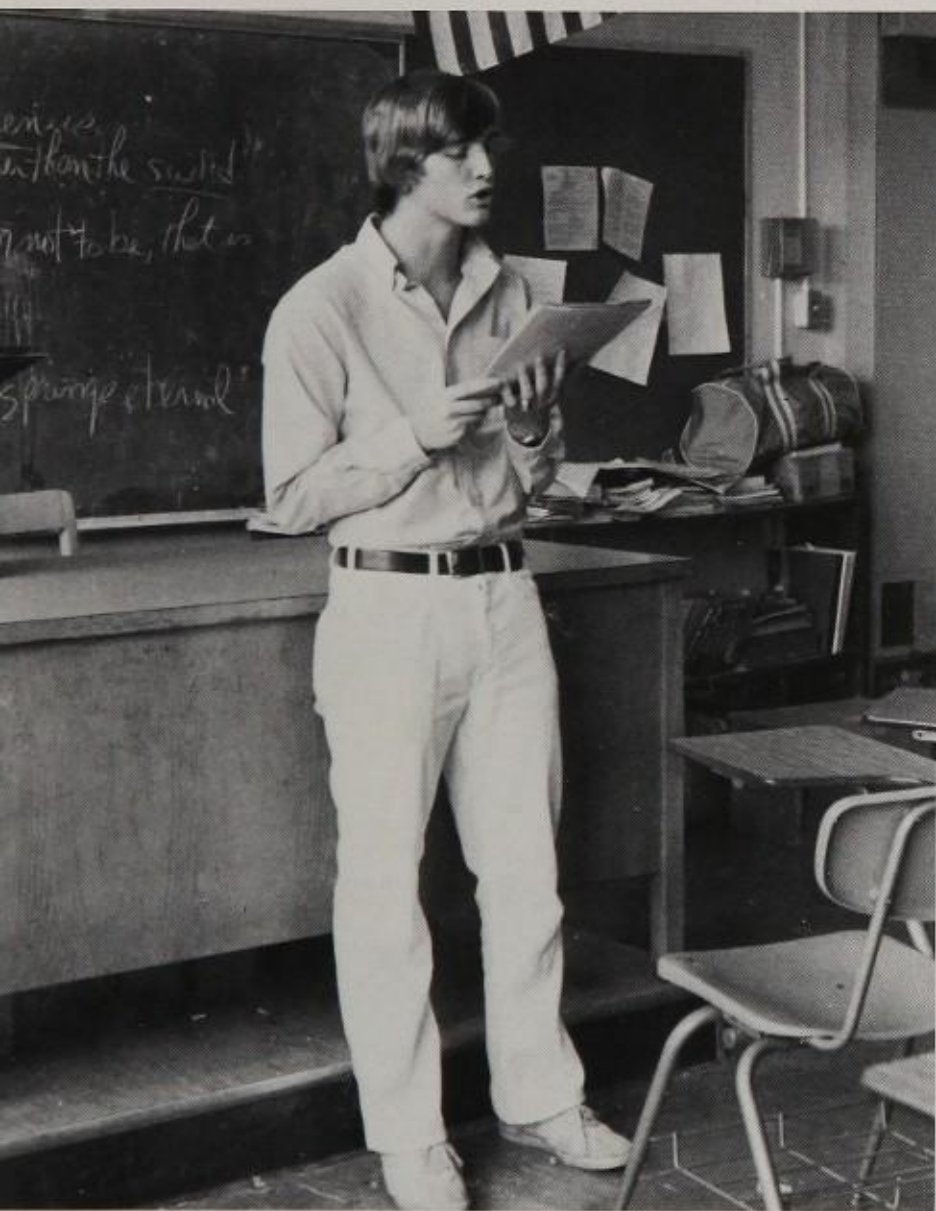

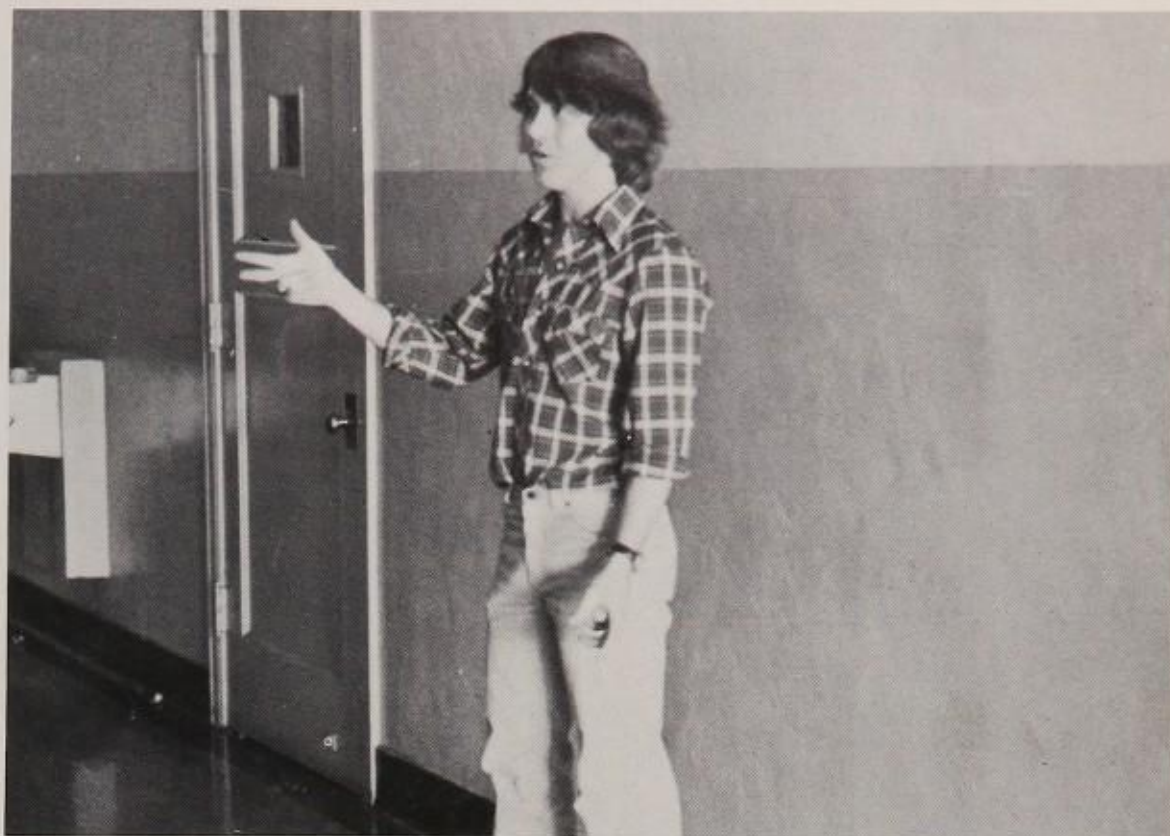

Adam Arkells and Ed Tanner prepare file cards.

Steven G,
I really don't know what to say to you other than ~~good~~ ~~look~~ next year. You learned a lot this year — you and me have the potential to be an awesome team. Work hard at Redlands and if you ever need anything at all just let me know. Keep the Damien Tradition moving dude — hang in there

Carlos Lopez gives his best shot.

Paul Munch shows why he is #1 debater.

Bruce McNamara makes final touches.

Damien Debaters went to Loyola Institute over the summer, and made a great showing. Paul Munch and Bruce McNamara received 2nd place with a 7-1 record. Ed Tanner was first with an 8-0 mark. The team also went to Redlands where they were represented by 9 speakers. Mr. Paul Hudson commented, "With a lot of hard work, tournament victories and sweepstakes trophies are very likely." Paul Munch also went to George Town Institute in Washington D.C. this summer and was awarded best speaker. The team traveled to George Town, Berkeley, U.S.C. & UCLA, where they did very well. On this year's squad were Paul Munch, Bruce McNamara, Adam Arkells, Carlos Lopez, Ed Tanner, Chris Mandala, Joe Verlich, Dave Turin, & Steve Larson.

Steve -

Nice knowing you this year - You're the future of Damien debate so keep up the good work. Keep guzzling that chocolate milk - Good luck next year

Ed Tanner

Steve Chocolate milk, Larson, what can I possibly say to someone who is fourteen years from puberty and yet the rouge king of Damien.
your purity is amazing! I don't think either the pure or God has as little dirty thoughts as you. But after all they have worked off their baby fat, I really hope you do well next year even if a handicap like M.C. Good luck

Students

Welcome to the Damien Community

The year begins with the dreaded age-old practice of Freshman initiation. But it always ends, and it is never as bad as expected. The Freshman schedule is pretty tough, all straight classes with no electives. Senior year seems an eternity away, but weekend dances and football games make the wait seem worth it.

Can Sophomores Really Yell Louder?

No longer the butt of everyone else's jokes, the Sophomore finally gains a little respect. It is time to get a class ring and begin pondering those eternal questions like, "When does drivers training start?" and "Why does $A^2 + B^2 = C^2$?" The Sophomore year is a tough one . . . A time for change.

Activities

Being a student at Damien, is more than just going to class. It involves rallies, sports activities, making posters, and cheering for the Spartans. During the school year, the students are invited to attend dances sponsored by different clubs and groups. Participation helps us deal with the monotonous routine of school classes.

As the new year begins so does the misery of the Freshmen. For each year the tradition of initiation must be carried out. The freshmen gathered in the gym where they met their big brothers who escorted them to the quad. The freshmen were to wear a white shirt and a tie. The seniors led the freshmen in doing cheers, athletic feats, and the dreaded passing of the penny. When the week was over the freshmen gave a sigh of relief.

Spartan Cheerleaders Make Fans Come Alive

The Varsity Cheerleaders showed great spirit as they led the students in rallies and sports activities. The cheerleaders spent numerous hours practicing routines under the leadership of Dee Jenkins, but all these practices and long hours of hard work paid off. They earned the glamour and prestige which they deserved.

Students Show Spirit

For a team to get up for their games, they have to know that they are backed 100%. To show this, rallies are put on to get, not only the team, but the fans excited for the event. This year the rallies helped the teams, especially for the Bishop Amat football game. A special thanks should go to the cheerleaders, songleaders, Mrs. Jenkins and Mr. O'Brien.

Worshiping Promotes Spiritual Growth

At a Catholic school, mass plays an important role in the lives of many of the students. At Damien, mass is a time when the student body joins together to share in a common act. It is a time of giving thanks for the success on the athletic field or mourning the death of a classmate. It's for receiving the Sacrament of Communion, it's a time for rejoicing in living.

A.S.B. Reps Plan Year's Activities

As an A.S.B. officer you have the responsibility of seeing that the social functions of the school are carried out, that events are scheduled to break up the monotony of the school year. It's a big job, but with a lot of work things fall together. The type of year that the student body enjoys depends on you. And you come through! From the football rallies to the Homecoming dance. You're a member of the small group that made the year a success.

Seniors Look Back

The senior year is one to look forward to, but it is especially one to look back on. It is a year different from all the rest. It is marked by the senior quad, off campus lunches and the senior parking lot. It is a year of decision making — which college or career to pursue? Most of all it is a year to enjoy and live to the fullest, and when it is over, to reminisce about and realize how much our years at Damien have given each of us.

EL GATO GORDO

It all started in Cucamonga.

Eleven years ago we had a great idea. We opened a restaurant in an abandoned farm house...in a secluded vineyard...in the heart of California's oldest wine district.

It seems that the Hollywood-movie-set-look gets a little tiring. Cask 'n Cleaver has decided to concentrate on the basics. We believe that what you really want is great

A few words about our food and wine. It's one thing to say you're good and entirely another to prove it. The Cask 'n Cleaver puts a heavy emphasis on serving you hand-selected, carefully aged Eastern Corn-Belt beef. The lobster is Western Australian. Exclusively. Our salad bar is said to be second to none. We want to make sure that you receive a good dollar value. That's why our Big Baker potato is included with every meal.

Our vintners work hard to produce fine wines. At each Cask 'n Cleaver we also work hard to know the wines we serve. Our wine list offers you selections from the best wineries in California such as Robert Mondavi, Louis Martini, and Beaulieu plus many of your new favorites like Callaway, Chateau St. Jean, Angelo Papagni and Burgess Cellars.

Cask 'n Cleaver knows that there's a lot more than good food and wine to make your evening pleasant and memorable. If you have dined and partaken the Cask 'n Cleaver, please do...soon. Like a bottle of good wine, we get better every year.

food, wine and tasteful service in a "real" environment. That's why we have kept to our original love affair with the grape. The theme is wine. And at each Cask 'n Cleaver you'll find a touch of the rustic and a dash of the old California winery.

And since that first restaurant we have opened sixteen more. One by one. Each with its own unique character. But all sharing the same philosophy, food and wine. The most important thing that you have taught us is that the ambiance of a restaurant is a delicate balance of attitude, service, taste and decor.

Computers aid in design and customer support.

Aerojet laser guidance and control systems are used in atomic fusion research.

Testing an acoustical countermeasure device for the U.S. Navy.

The light pipe in the picture is an optical device used in sensitive satellite systems. It is only one of the devices Aerojet ElectroSystems has developed since 1942 for its sophisticated sensors for our country's defense and to help us understand and protect our environment.

Aerojet is one of America's major sources of advanced technology. Achievement is the key to our success.
